

EPOKAL

Tutta la suggestione di un legno pietrificato in cui le venature cristallizzate diventano pure emozioni.
La varietà di sfumature, sia nella versione lucida che naturale, stupisce per ricercatezza e profondità dei dettagli.

*All of the allure of petrified wood where crystallized grains become pure emotion.
The variety of nuances, both glossy and natural, is astonishing for the refinement and depth of details.*

SHADE VARIATION

The figure displays four 3x3 grids of squares, each representing a different level of grayscale variation. The first grid, labeled 'LOW', consists of nine identical light gray squares. The second grid, labeled 'MODERATE', shows a slight range of gray tones. The third grid, labeled 'HIGH', features a wider range of gray tones, including some darker shades. The fourth grid, labeled 'RANDOM', shows the most variation, with a mix of light, medium, and dark gray squares, including some black squares.
